THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

President Roosevelt Sets Aside Nov. 27, As Annual National Holiday.

President Roosevelt has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, November 27, as a day of National Thanksgiving. The proclamation is as follows:

According to the yearly custom of our people, it falls upon the President at this season to appoint a day of festival Thanksgiving to God. Over a century and a quarter has passed since this country took its place among the nations of the earth and during that time we have had, on the whole, more to be thankful for than has fallen to the lot of any other people. Generation after generation has grown to manhood and passed away; each has had to bear its peculiar burdens, each to face its special crisis, and each has known years of grim trial. When the country was menaced by malice, domestic or foreign; when the hand of the Lord was heavy upon it in drought or flood or pestilence; when in bodily distress and anguish of the soul, it paid the penalty of its folly and forward heart, nevertheless, decade by decade, we have struggled onward and upward. We now abundantly enjoy material well-being, and under the favor of the Most High, we are striving earnestly to achieve moral and spiritual uplifting.

The year that has just closed has been one of peace and overflowing plenty. Rarely has any people enjoyed greater prosperity than we are now enjoying. For this we render heartfelt and solemn thanks to the Giver of all good, and we praise Him not by words only, but by deeds, by the way in which we do our duty to ourselves and to our fellowmen.

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 27th day of the coming November and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks unto Almighty God for the manifold blessings of the past year. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington, this, the 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, and of the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-seventh. [SEAL]

To Cuba.

Say, Cuba,
What do you think of us—
U. S.
See?
O, gee.
Ain't this land of the free
A bird?
Have you ever heard
Of anything so absurd
As the way we keep our word?
But don't you worry
Or be in a hurry,
For we're going to scurry
Around and pay off the mortgage
The best sugar trust
Holds on us, or bust;
And then we play fair
And make it square
With you,
Or rip the Red, White and Blue
Trying to,
See?

SHARPSBURG WANTS A LINE.

Citizens Address the Mayor Urging Extension of N. Middle-town Road.

Already the prophecy that the proposed Lexington and North Middletown electric railway may become a trunk line seems of early realization. It is now proposed to extend the line to Sharpsburg, twelve miles beyond North Middletown.

Mayor Duncan, of Lexington, received a special delivery letter from the principal business men of Sharpsburg Wednesday, asking for consideration of a proposition to extend the line. Sharpsburg is on a direct line from Lexington via North Middletown. Following is the letter received by Mayor Duncan:

Sharpsburg, Ky., Oct. 29, 1902.
Mayor H. T. Duncan,
Lexington, Ky.

"Dear Sir:—We take the liberty to write you, seeing your name as a member of a committee of business men to meet the citizens of North Middletown, Ky., to discuss the electric road from Lexington to the latter point. Not seeing the notice of this meeting in The Morning Herald until too late to be in Lexington today, we take this method of placing our town before you as a desirable and profitable extension of this line. Since these traction systems were first originated throughout the Blue Grass region, our citizens have been very much in favor of a line from Lexington to Sharpsburg via North Middletown, and we think the greater majority want that line and no other. We have had propositions for other routes, that is from Sharpsburg to Mt. Sterling or Carlisle, but have never given them any encouragement.

We are situated twelve miles from Mt. Sterling and twelve miles from Carlisle, our nearest railroad points. According to statistics, we are in the best farming country in the world, the statistics showing that the Flat creek land of Bath county, which is in our territory, as the best, most fertile and productive land in the world. We are twelve miles from Licking river by turnpike. As a shipping point we would command the traffic to Licking river and a distance of at least twenty miles up and down said river, aside from a distance of at least six to eight miles north, south and west of town.

The fuel of the entire community is coal, which at present must be hauled by wagon from Mt. Sterling or Carlisle. Our principal crops are corn, wheat and tobacco, the latter of which is the most extensive as to shipping. By an estimate of Hon. Waller Sharp, the most extensive tobacco dealer in the county, an aggregate of twenty million pounds would be shipped from this point annually. These, aside from the live stock, etc., to be shipped out, and the vast amount of coal and merchandise to be shipped in, together with the passenger traffic, would, we think, be to Lexington a good feeder, and we respectfully ask your consideration of said route.

We would be glad to give you any further information regarding this section. We are about ten to twelve miles from North Middletown, and should you run a line to that point, we feel that it will be much to your interest to extend to this place."

Last Saturday the first mails over the rural routes of Clark county started from the Winchester postoffice.

SALVATION

For the Kentucky Mountains—W. J. Lampton's Appeal for an Industrial Education.

Writing in the New York Sun in support of the Lincoln Memorial University of Cumberland Gap for the education of young men and women of the mountains, W. J. Lampton writes as follows of the Kentucky mountaineers:

"There are 500,000 people living tributary to Lincoln University who have in them the genuine quality of the American, but it has no opportunity of development, and the result is, through all that section we find poor farms, poor houses, poor food, poor liquor, poor education, poor religion, poor everything that might and should be made good and wholesome. There prevail the bloody feuds that have put there red marks on the history of those States, and these ignorance holds the people in thrall. It isn't book learning those people need, but training in how to make homes livable places; to be taught the little amenities of life; to be taught how to prepare the food that is in abundance about them; to be taught how to get the most out of the opportunities they have; to be taught something of social pleasures, the proper association together of their own kind; to be taught how to build their houses, and how to keep them when they are occupied; to be taught the sewing machine instead of the shotgun; to be taught the more modern appliances of living, the more modern ideas of labor, the more modern ideas of the world's progress; to be taught sanitation and cleanliness; to be taught new things to take the place of the old that have kept them back three-quarters of a century. Nowhere in this country can a more primitive people be found than among these mountaineers.

"No one knows or can know what manner of people these are until he has gone among them. Many of them are capable, and have managed, in a way, to keep fairly abreast of the times, and to be fairly modern in their ideas, but the majority, less capable, are far behind, and the opportunity being lacking for their betterment, they remain in the rut. Yet the results at Lincoln University, and at other schools which in a small way have been attempted, show conclusively that these people are ready and willing to come out of the darkness that has shut them in for 150 years."

Demand for Morgan County Coal.

The development of the canal coal fields in Morgan county has proceeded so rapidly that about thirty cars a week are now being handled by the Ohio & Kentucky railroad to the Lexington & Eastern for the Central Kentucky trade. The transportation facilities are for the present behind the demand for the coal and the question of cars to handle it is now becoming a serious one. Much of this canal coal is now being used in the Chicago trade.

The Covington Post says: Among those who registered Tuesday was Justus Goebel, but recently returned from Arizona. He gave his address as 57 East Sixth street, Covington, and, of course, registered as a Democrat. His appearance as a voter in Covington is looked upon by some as an evidence of his determination to devote some time to politics from now on.

Bring your job work to this office and you will be pleased.

NEW OWNERS.

The Louisville Commercial Passes to a New Company Shortly to be Incorporated.

The Louisville Commercial, a Republican morning paper, owned by the Duponts, of Wilmington, Del., has been sold to a company which will be incorporated with Harrison M. Parker and Charles M. Palmer, of New York; Young E. Allison, Washington Flexner and George A. Newman, Jr., of Louisville, as incorporators. The new owners will take charge as soon as the necessary formalities can be gone through with.

Beckham Eligible.

That Gov. Beckham is eligible under the State Constitution to succeed himself as the Chief Executive of Kentucky is held by former Chief Justices W. S. Pryor and J. H. Hazenrigg, former Governor J. Proctor Knott, former Congressman William T. Ellis and Col. Lewis McQuown, all leading constitutional lawyers in an opinion furnished the Governor.

The question was raised by former Congressman John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, who recently announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of Chief Executive.

Gov. Beckham has not as yet made a formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election, but will do so in the next few weeks.

The Kentucky Constitution provides that the Governor shall be ineligible for a succeeding term. A term is four years. Governor Beckham, at the close of the present term, will have served three years and eleven months.—Blue Grass Clipper.

Other prominent lawyers say he is ineligible.

Bring us your job work.

DISTRESSING

High Prices of Provisions of all Kinds Cause Orphans Home Managers to Ask for Aid.

The Board of Managers of the Lexington Orphan Asylum makes the statement that it has not been able to pay current expenses during the year, and appeals to friends of the institution for help. The endowment fund is small, and as rates of interest have declined, they have not been able to pay expenses, even with the help of the city and the county. There are now thirty-five children, several of whom have been sick with scarlet fever during the past month. The cost of provision of all kinds is so high that the Board is compelled to appeal to the benevolence of friends for assistance.

Preacher Uses Knife.

In an altercation at Paducah growing out of the pranks of a mischief loving boy, the Rev. G. W. Briggs, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, and a widely known minister, stabbed and seriously wounded Mr. T. J. Garr, the proprietor of the Inn, a fashionable boarding house, where Mr. Briggs and his family were making their home. Mr. Briggs is one of the most eloquent and prominent ministers in the Methodist Church, South.

Good Prices Paid for Bath County Farms.

Near Sharpsburg, Judge L. S. Rodgers sold his 200 acre farm to Robert Clark for $20,000, or $100 per acre. This is the best price for a large farm ever paid in Bath county. Robert Clark sold his farm to Oscar Chandler for $7,300 cash. M. and C. Botta bought of E. E. Peck seventy-five acres of land for $4,687.50.

Foxhunters Meet.

The National Foxhunters' Association will meet at Bowling Green, Ky., November 10th. Col. Lee Hathaway, of Winchester, is First Vice President of the Association.

The Winchester electric street railway is nearing completion and it is expected that the cars will be running by November 15. The suspension cables are in place, the track is completed and the stringing of the trolley wires is about all that remains to be done.

VICTORY.

Court of Appeals Democratic. Every Democratic candidate for Congress ately in except the Eleventh district. Rebutals to Taylorism in Kentucky, and the trusts and imperialism in the States. Frank Hopkins may have a majority of 3,000. His home county expresses her estimation of their candidate by giving him a majority rising above 700. Montgomery gives a majority of 253. Menefee 375. The people have spoken and Kentucky Republicans may "go way back and sit down." "Combines, schemes and money were without avail."

THE WAY REPUBLICANS DID.

As time goes by, knowledge of the means that were resorted to to defeat Bryan begins to leak out. Here for instance is a dispatch from Iowa, a special to the Chicago Chronicle, which professes to be a Democratic paper but which opposed the election of Bryan in 1896, was treacherous in 1900 and is all the time as good a party organ for the Republicans as they could ask for. The Chronicle published this dispatch on the 23th. It tells its own story.

"The Republican State Central Committee has been notified the railroad will not allow free transportation to students of the colleges of the State who desire to go home to vote. The railroad officials say they began the practice in 1896, when, under strong pressure to prevent the election of Bryan, they aided the Republican campaign management as much as possible. Now they hold there is no necessity for it."

Railroads are not excusable for giving free transportation to serve a political purpose. They are public servants, whose right of way has been secured for them by the sovereign power of the State for a public purpose, and they have no more right than any other public servant to discriminate against persons or classes. Yet it was by means of such discrimination not only that Republican college students were carried long distances to vote, but that crowds were carried to Canton to hear McKinley speak, and that the party of plutocracy was otherwise aided. But a day of wrath is coming fast, and against that day things like this will be treasured up.—The Public.

Republicans complain of any appearance of insincerity and yet it is not unusual to see them practicing their ingenious tricks. To be right in politics is honorable, and the man or party who would do others needs to be watched, for they are dishonest wherever they have a chance.

Owing to the failure of the electric lights there was no preaching at the white churches on Sunday evening, except at the Baptist church.

The Young Peoples' Society of the Southern Presbyterian Church will hereafter hold its meetings at the church on the Sabbath, one hour before evening service.

Rev. John E. Abbott, of the Southern Presbyterian Church recently closed a protracted meeting at Springfield Church, Bath county. The services were largely attended and resulted in six accessions to the church.

Rev. F. S. Pollitt, of Ft. Thomas, who was appointed by Bishop Morrison to Floydburg, near Louisville, has declined the assignment. He has been released by the Bishop, and is helping to edit a topical reference Bible.

The services at St. Joseph's church Sunday were of a most interesting nature. Father Wm. Punch, of Beattyville, officiated at the first Mass at 7.30 a. m., and Father Liberte Waegenaar, of Mt. Sterling, at High Mass at 10.15, the sermon in the latter instance being preached by Father Punch, who delivered a most eloquent and impressive sermon.—Winchester Democrat.

Without any previous notice that last Sunday would be the 15th anniversary of Rev. H. D. Clark's pastorate of the Christian Church in this city, a large audience gathered. Through these years he has accomplished a great work, and deservedly stands high in the esteem not only of his congregation but of many members of other congregations in town. So far as we know the prospects are favorable for a continued work of several years.

Dr. Eugene E. Ayrs, of Georgetown College, will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. So far as the few opportunities offered to hear this, one of the profoundest thinkers, scholarly men and pleasant speakers of the State. A large crowd is expected to hear the celebrated divine. Time, 11 a. m. and 7.15 p. m. Come early and secure comfortable seats.

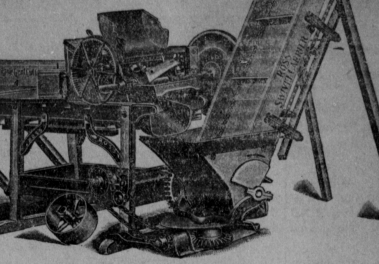

A series of special meetings will begin at the First Presbyterian Church on next Monday evening, November 10. Rev. F. J. Cheek, D. D., of Paris, will preach until Thursday, when Rev. R. E. Weaver, of Harpersburg, will arrive and preach for the next two weeks. Mr. Weaver held meetings at Sharpshurg last year and was instrumental in arousing a deep interest not only in the Presbyterian church, but in the entire community, large numbers being added to all the churches.

On Sunday the congregation of the Broadway Christian Church, Lexington, Ky., decided by a vote to place an organ in their church. When the result of the vote was announced, Prof. J. W. McGarvey, who for many years was a former pastor of the congregation, arose and asked for a letter for himself and wife as they desired to take membership at Chestnut Street Church. His opposition to the use of an organ in religious service has been known for a long time.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

For the second time in the history of the organization of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in this city the anniversary of the Order was observed Sunday by attending services at the Baptist Church. Bro. W. J. Bolin, an honored member of the Order preached from Romans, 15: 10. About 100 members of the Order were present and as words of truth and eloquence fell from the lips of the speaker the attention was so profound as to cause comment. The sermon made an impression on the audience that will result in great good, and as the "boys" fell in line to leave the church many hearts resolved to

Shot-Gun Prescriptions.

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secret when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "shot-gun prescriptions," which were formerly somewhat in vogue.

The idea of the shot-gun prescription was to put in a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

Vinol, the medicine we sell over our name and guarantee, is not a scattering "shot-gun prescription," but goes straight to the mark.

It is the best thing we know for a run-down condition, for a listless feeling, nerve troubles, for lung troubles—in fact, it is a safe, pleasant, reliable tonic and reconstructive.

It has cured so many people right here in town we offer money back if it fails to benefit.

The Cost of War.

Apart from humanitarian sentiments, the budgets of the nations need but casual study to convince one of the folly of war. Of course, there have been wars where the highest principles have been involved. There have been from time to time, and probably will be as long as man is man, conditions that demand betterment and arouse the loftiest instincts of liberty and self-preservation in a nation, even to the point of drawing a sword. But Mars is not long on principle. Greed, jealousy, the barbaric love of blood itself, too often are the ruling incentives on one side or the other in international contests. And when the strife is over there is not only suffering and misery in thousands of homes ravaged by the battle demon, but there is a generally a heritage of debt that, with its accumulating interest, falls heavily upon the shoulders of posterity. Take the national debt of Great Britain. This year it is estimated at about $3,850,000,000, and of this one fourth it is directly traceable to wars during the last sixty years.

A billion dollars of war debt left unpaid by one country in less than two generations! Over two thirds of this arose from the South African War alone, while the Crimean War is down in the treasury books of John Bull at over $200,000,000. The rest is made up from expenditures in the Canadian insurrection and China War in 1841, the Kafr War of 1849, the Abyssinian in 1899, the Russo-Turkish and South African wars of 1878-9, and the Egyptian operations of 1886. Not a war in the list was a contest to a finality with any great Power. And yet, how modern warfare as exemplified in the recent Boer conflict, has swollen the total! No wonder the treasury is a good brake on the War Departments these days! It costs enough, surely, too keep up an army and navy of decent size in this wealth-producing and wealth-distributing era, but a war for supremacy between Great Britain and Russia for instance, would be won only at the cost of practical bankruptcy. The greatest ally of the international arbitration and universal peace project is the cost of the war.

Mistake of Mistakes.

The mistake of mistakes is to wait until one has money—lots of it—before one begins to advertise. Without exception the really successful men of this country began advertising when they had but little money.

THREE WORDS A DAY.

Will Soon Make You Proficient in Any Foreign Language.

"It doesn't require any great length of time to learn a language if one has patience," said a man who has mastered several languages, to a New Orleans Times-Democrat reporter, "and when I hear a man report that he is not able to speak French, German, or Spanish, or some other language unknown to him I cannot conceal my amusement. In nine cases out of ten I might say that the men who express a regret of this sort handle English very poorly if that happens to be their language. The chances are that their vocabularies are extremely limited and it would probably surprise them to know that despite the advantages of birth and education they could not command more than 600 or 700 words in English if their lives depended upon it. Yet they are able to carry on an intelligent conversation, and many of them may become forcible, and even axiomatic in their sayings, and they plunge into discussions of literature, art, music and other subjects of such fine elegance, and do it rather successfully too. Now how long ought it to take a man to learn 600 or 700, or even 1,000 words in any language? Certainly it ought not to take any great length of time, and from my own experience I know that it does not. Of course, I am not speaking now of mastering so that one can get the full benefit of all the refinements of speech in a particular tongue. But I have in mind the idea of speaking intelligibly in a given language and being able to understand perfectly what is said in return. I have a system which I have worked out and it has been of vast benefit to me and has enabled me to learn a number of languages. It occurred to me while I was in Mexico a few years ago on important business. I could not speak a word of Spanish and could not understand the language. I concluded that I would learn the language. My plan was simply this: I made up my mind that I would not retire at the close of any day as long as I was there without learning at least three words in Spanish, how to pronounce them and what they meant. That would give me 90 words per month, or something over 1,000 in a year's time. I stuck to the task, and I was there nine months, and as a result of my system I was not only able to converse in Spanish, but carried on my correspondence in Spanish. I don't suppose I could write an essay in the language, but I can speak it, write it, and understand it, and it was all brought about by the three words a day system."

THE DUFFORD'S BLACKDRAUGHT
THE GREAT
FAMILY MEDICINE

Theodore's Black-Draught has saved doctors' bills for more than sixty years. For the common family ailments, such as constipation, indigestion, hard colic, bowel complaints, chills and fever, biliousness, headaches and other like complaints no other medicine is necessary. It invigorates and regulates the liver, assists digestion, stimulates action of the kidneys, purifies the blood, and purges the bowels of foul accumulations. It cures liver complaint, indigestion, sour stomach, diarrhoea, chills, rheumatic pains, sciatica, backache, kidney troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, biliousness, piles, hard colic and headache. Every drug-gist has Theodore's Black-Draught in 25 cent packages and in mam-moth size for $1.00. Never accept a substitute. Insist on having the original made by the Chattanooga Medicine Company.

I believe Theodore's Black-Draught is the best medicine on earth. It is good for any and everything. I have a family of twelve children, and for four years I have kept them in fact and healthy with no doctor's Black-Draught. A. J. GREEN, Newburg, La.

Captured the Whole Works.
Capt. W. T. Short made a successful raid on Auck Creek, Estill county, recently, when he de-stroyed a whole still together with about eleven hundred gallons of beer and sixty gallons of low wine. The operator, Jack McKinney, is now in the Richmond jail awaiting his trial in the November term of the Federal court.

Law Did Not Pass.
A misapprehension exists as to whether or not the Legislature passed the bill introduced at the last session prohibiting the sale of quail killed in this State between the open dates for quail shooting November 15 to January 1. The bill, it appears, failed to pass the Senate, hence there is nothing this year to keep Kentucky hunters from marketing their quail in this and other cities of their State.—Winchester Democrat.

"Lock Your Lips."
"Lock your lips, children," said the teacher. Instantly the child-ish voices ceased their prattle, and all the little lips in the kinder-garten were tightly closed. Two or three youngsters evidently could not trust themselves to keep silence without extra precaution, and it was with considerable amusement that I noticed them holding their lips together with their fingers.

As I watched these kinder-garten tots—most of them scarcely more than babies—I thought that, if some of us older people were willing to humble ourselves and become "as one of these little ones" we might learn a valuable lesson. The unkind and unjust words spoken in anger, and often repented of as soon as spoken, are gone with the sting and the smart. They cannot be recalled. How many bitter feelings and heartaches might be spared if some of us only locked our lips instead of obeying the first im-pulse to speak unkindly! And even with locked lips, if not sure of ourselves, would it not be wise to follow the example of the chil-dren, and hold our lips close to-gether with our fingers until the anger has died out of our hearts?

G. H. Hansen, Lima, O., Engi-neer L. E. & W. R. R., writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with backache. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure, and one bottle entirely relieved me. I gladly recommend it to anyone, especially my friends among the train men, who are usually af-flicted."

We are Back from New York

WITH

Bargains for All.

We went on the buyers' excursion to the great metropolis, and never was time and money more profitably spent by us, but it was you we were thinking of—of how best we could serve your inter-ests by serving our own. We are now ready for fall trade as we were never ready before. Not a dollar's worth of unseasonable goods has been left in our new stock. Everything is new, spick and span.

Wagon load after wagon load of new goods have been continually unloaded at the Great Busy Bee Cash Store until progress along the street was impeded. For one whole week people had to walk around or pick their way through the wall of boxes that sur-rounded the entire store.

The proprietors of this Great Bargain mast the Busy Bee Cash Store gave instructions to their buyers before going East to leave nothing undone to make this the banner year of their business career in this city, and the buyers have certainly exerted their skill to its utmost capacity. Shelves, counters, ledges, and every available space in the large store is stacked and piled from floor to ceiling and are creaking and groaning under the immense weight of the new goods piled on them.

Our new Dress Goods are creating a big noise among the ladies who have seen them and the pretty, nobby stuff is already beginning to go out in large quantities. Our ladies know a good thing when they see it, and the beauty and elegance of these new things are so striking that they are taking advantage of them while they can get them.

Our Men's and Boys' Clothing is so far superior to any of our past efforts that it will be a death blow to all competition. Just think of buying a good Cassimere Suit for Boys for 98c, a good Wool Cassimere Suit for Men for $3.48. Our stylish, nobby suits will cost you just half the price other merchants ask you for the same things. Our Overcoats are already on the move, and wise customers are selecting now while they can get the new styles. Have a look at our Clothing; it will pay you.

Already our customers are beginning to say that we never will sell all the Cloaks, Wraps, Jackets, Raglans, Monte Carlos, Fur Jackets, Furs of all kinds, Ladies' ready-made Tailored Skirts and Tailor-made Suits that fill the tables, racks and even piled on the floor in our Tailor-made Suit and Cloak Department. The like was never before seen in Mt. Sterling. It is a sight worth coming miles to see whether you want to buy or not. The new style garments will tempt you and low cash price will sell you.

Our Underwear fills nearly one entire side of our big store. Underwear to suit every-body. Can't name prices, space won't admit. Don't pay over price for Underwear. Get posted; get our prices and qualities before you buy.

All the little notions that one needs are to be had here, and there's not as much to pay for them as elsewhere. No imitations or seconds; get standing room here. You pay for what you get, and you get what you pay for.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Real Service.

He who has a new vision of higher life, and sweeter privilege in Christ, and tells it to others and leads them there, is doing as real missionary service as he who crosses the sea, on the back-ground of heathen character outlines the life of Jesus, and first says to pagan chieftain, "Behold the man." There is no holier ministry than bearing the light of the gospel to the nations enveloped in the darkness of heathenism.

Who Are Heroes?

Posterity will yet assign the chief places of honor in the world's true Pantheon of heroes to those who save, and not to those who destroy. Not to the Alexanders of Macedon, the Caesars of Rome, the Napoleons of France, but to the Bonifaces of Germany, the Careys of India, the Livingstones of Africa. If we can let be whom the world calls great, not be like unto them, and the heavens that know our limitations will pronounce us good and great enough.

Going Nowhere

It was Johnny, the seven year old, who tired of the "merry-go-round." The previous summer it had fascinated him, and he could not ride on it to often. This season a single trip satisfied him, and he declined another. "No, thank you, grandfather," he said in his quaintly polite way. "You see, we ride and ride, but we stay under that old tent all the time. I guess when anybody gets to be seven years old, they are too big to care about going and going that doesn't get any where."

"Now, may the boy hold fast to his wisdom!" commented the grandfather, relating the incident.—Wellspring.

A man in Chicago was arrested for swindling. He dried snow and sold it for salt.

A lady visiting a hospital gave a soldier who had lost both legs a tract on the sin of dancing.

A Chinaman having stolen a Mis-sionary's watch, called the next day to be shown how to wind it up.

A Cincinnati judge has granted a divorce to a husband on the com-plaint that his wife persists in sleeping with a dog. It does look like one dog in a bed at a time is enough.

Withdraws.
 WASHINGTON, Ky., Nov. 5.
Mt. Sterling Advocate:

I wish you to inform the people through the columns of your paper that I have decided to withdraw from the race for Representative, as the committee has so arranged this convention as to deprive me of the vote of my many friends in Menefee. I don't think it is quite fair, as I have always understood DEMOCRACY to mean the voice of the people. I had an opponent that almost decided once to ask this same committee to leave the nomination of our next Representative to Menefee, but fearing a misdeal he came to the town of Frenchburg and called a couple of the Great lights on political issues into a secret place, consulted them, and was informed that it was risky, so they agreed to depart from hence, one going east, one west, one north and one south, and poll the vote of every man that would express himself for Hamilton and also all that failed to express themselves. They returned and counted their vote and found themselves considerably in the minority. They consulted again and agreed to depart from the uncertainties of Menefee and fly to the more genial climes of Montgomery.

I wish the people of Montgomery county to consider the manner in which he is trying to slip around and climb up some other way, and get in to the place of a Representative. I imagine that he is thinking of the honor it will bring to him and his posterity, but that is not the thing for the Democrats of Montgomery county to consider. We want a man that will be an honor to the office he holds instead of the office honoring the man. I am very thankful for the interest my friends in both counties have taken in my behalf for the short time that my name was before the people and wish to thank them very kindly as I feel under as many obligations to them as I would if I had received the nomination. Here is hoping that the best man will get the nomination and one hurrah for the nominees.

Yours very respectfully,

SUICIDE.
Cary Mitchell, Despondent Over Domestic Troubles Takes His Life With a Revolver.

Cary Mitchell, aged about sixty-five years, living with his son-in-law, Z. C. Moore, on the Bright place near Sewell's shop, committed suicide Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock by shooting himself in the right side below the ribs with a 44-calibre revolver. Death was almost instantaneous. Corner Bringer of Clarke county, was notified and held the inquest.

Brooding over domestic troubles seems to have been the cause of the suicide. Some time ago the deceased and his wife separated and lately he became mentally unbalanced.

Mr. George Davis will office with Mr. T. J. Bigstaff in the practice of his profession. This gives Mr. Davis access to one of the first law libraries in Kentucky, and possessed as he is with information and a well trained mind, there is no reason why he will not soon be at the top with the best lawyers of Kentucky. We shall watch his progress with much interest.

DEATHS.

REID—Mrs. Mary Davis Reid died at the home of her son-in-law Mr. Allen Prewitt in this city on Sunday morning at 7:10 o'clock, November 2nd, 1902. The funeral service was held at the Christian Church on Tuesday morning by Rev. H. D. Clark. The burial was at the family grave-yard on the Winchester pike where rest her kindred dead. Mrs. Reid was in many particulars a remarkable woman, strong of mind, conscientious on every question of justice, ready to lift up the fallen, to comfort the sorrowing and alleviate every pain of the suffering. She was a daughter of Josiah and Patsy Davis, and at the age of sixteen became the second wife of Henry P. Reid. She was a sister of his first wife. She had seven children, only two of whom survive her. Mrs. Pattie Bright and Mrs. Mary V., wife of Allen Prewitt. Two brothers also survive her, Dr. W. R. Davis, of Bensenville, Arkansas, and Samuel T. Davis, Fair Haven, Mo. Her brother James died in Texas, where lives a large family of grand-children. Early in life she became a member

COLLIER—James Collier died on Wednesday, October 29th, 1902, near Timpico, Mexico, where he was in the lumber business. His family lived at Millersburg, Ky., and his son, Robert, is a resident of this city.

PARRISH—On Sunday morning, November 2nd, 1902, Miss Elsie Clay, daughter of H. C. Parrish and wife, of near Camargo, died of typhoid fever. She was 16 years old, was a member of the Christian church, a beautiful and lovely spirited young lady, with a host of friends. The mother was at the same time dangerously ill of fever, unconscious, and hence did not know of the death of her child. On account of Mrs. Parrish's condition the body was taken to the home of her uncle, Taylor Shouse. Here the funeral service was held on Monday morning by Rev. E. A. Carnahan. The burial was at the family grave-yard. She was their only child. To the bereft and sorrowing father we extend our sympathy.

In her last days the writer had talked with and labored to make her happy over what she has accomplished for earth's weak ones, but her regret was that she had not done more for them. Of her own salvation she was happy when she remembered that she was trusting the complete atonement and that no powers were able to deprive her of that rich inheritance appropriated to her by faith. SAMUELS—Harry Orr Samuels, aged 19 years, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary R. Samuels, in this city, on Saturday morning, November 1st, 1902, after many months of confinement, and heroic endeavor to overcome that dread disease, consumption. The funeral service was held at the house on Sunday afternoon by Revs. Jno. E. Abbott, his pastor, and H. D. Clark. Many and beautiful floral offerings attested the esteem in which he was held by loved ones and friends. He was childlike, of sweet and gentle disposition, possessed of rare musical talents, and was a child of God through faith in the Christ. He rests from the sufferings of earth life, and will live on in that land where sorrows never come and where will be no discord or break in his desire and talent for music. We have lost—but he has gained. To his family we thus express our sympathy.

BLIND WOMEN

If one woman saw another woman who was blind groping her way with doubtful and uncertain steps, the natural womanly impulse would be to take the blind woman by the hand and guide her. It is a similar womanly impulse which leads the women who have been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to give their testimony to the cures they have experienced, in the hope and desire that it may be of help to some other suffering woman.

There are thousands of women groping their way blindly with hesitating and uncertain steps toward the much desired goal of health. To such women are stretched out the guiding, helpful hands of those who have attained womanly health, to lead them to their desired haven. Let every woman who suffers from womanly diseases and who reads these letters remember that they point to a path of healing which is so sure that only one woman in fifty who uses "Favorite Prescription" falls short of a perfect and permanent cure.

"I was sick for over two years with one doctor said was inflammation of the ovary," writes Mrs. J. Carlett, of Main Street, Weston, York Co., Ont. "Another doctor did not understand my case. One day I received one of your little books, and after reading it I thought I would write you and see if you could do me any good. I could hardly put one foot before the other when I wrote, and could not possibly stand up straight. I could not really describe what I suffered; pain at my heart, headache, and it seemed a thousand ills, as though every portion of my body had something the matter with it. After writing to you I received a very kind letter indeed, telling me what treatment to use. I followed your advice and can say to-day that my health is better than ever before in my life. I look both 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' You may think it certainly made a great change in my looks, when, one day after taking the medicine, I chanced to meet our family doctor and he said, 'Why, Mrs. Carlett, you are looking a great deal better than you did some time ago.' When the doctor said anything like that you know that it must be a wonderful change, for, as a general rule, they like to tell people they look sick. I really think that Dr. R. V. Pierce's treatment is a God-send to all women, and if any one ailing from any female trouble whatever, no matter what it may be, will write to him I am positive that they will find one who will cure them. I have recommended Dr. Pierce's medicines to quite a few and will ever continue to do so, for I know from experience what they are."

The results which follow the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are positive, not negative—permanent, not transient. It would be a great relief to a suffering woman if she could be helped so as not to feel badly. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes a woman feel positively well. Some women would be happy if they didn't have to suffer all the time. "Favorite Prescription" cures them so that they do not suffer any of the time. They are made well. They feel well. They look well. Good looks and bad health never go together. The very fountain of beauty is health. When the womanly organism is diseased the general health is undermined. The skin loses its beautiful tint, the body falls off in flesh, and the dragging step keeps pace with the languor of the body. When womanly diseases are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the skin regains its hue of health, the body puts on flesh and the light, elastic step keeps time and time to the buoyant feeling of vigorous health.

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight years before taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. Pierce Geise, of 822 East Phila. Street, York, Pa. "Will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine who may inquire as to what it has done for me. I was troubled with female weakness, and began to think I never would be well. If I had continued the treatment prescribed by my doctor I don't know what would have become of me. When your treatment was commenced my weight was 108 pounds; at present it is 130. Have healthy color, and my friends say I look well. My best thanks to you and best wishes, too, for what you have done for me."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is the best tonic and nerve for weak, run-down women. It cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and promotes a healthy appetite.

Dr. Pierce invites sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, to consult him by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, in Buffalo, N. Y.

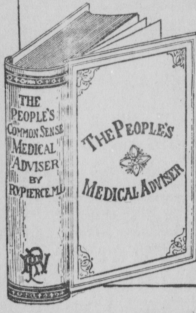

Thousands of women have taken advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, and Mrs. Carlett only voices the general sentiment expressed by those grateful women when she writes in her letter above: "I really think that Dr. R. V. Pierce's treatment is a God-send to all women, and if any one ailing from any female trouble whatever, no matter what it may be, will write to him I am positive that they will find one who will cure them." Mrs. Carlett speaks from experience. What has been done for her is being done daily for other weak and sick women.

Sometimes a dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious preparations, will offer a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" as "just as good." Judged by its record of cures of womanly ills, there is no other medicine just as good as "Favorite Prescription."

A Chicago paper recently quoted some dressed turkeys there at 13¢ to 14¢ cents per pound, making the point that such prices were unprecedented for the time of year and indicated much higher prices later on. The Chicago market, notwithstanding the same paper's statement to the contrary, handles the western product almost exclusively, and this, in any market always commands better prices than the southern article; besides an early shipment of one or two cars is apt to go off in a hurry at the best prices of the season, just as the first shipment of strawberries, water-melons, or other luxuries invariably do. So there is little in the Chicago argument to encourage a hope for fancy prices as the season advances.

"ON MEMORANDUM."

"Sometimes we are obliged to call a spade a spade," said the lace expert to a New York Herald reporter. "If we did not we would be in hot water much of the time. Now, for instance, there is the case of Mrs. B., one of our charge customers. She came in here, selected a point lace bertha, and said she would take it. We had not the least hesitation in allowing her to take the goods. But, as it happened, there was a large ball up town that night, and I had made arrangements to describe the gowns worn for a society publication.

"One of the first things I noticed was Mrs. B. wearing the bertha I had allowed her to take on memorandum. Of course, she did not see me, but I guess by this time she wishes she had. Next afternoon she came in, bringing the bertha. She said she would not take it, that it did not just suit her after a more careful examination.

"I told her I was sorry to disappoint her, but we never took goods back after they had been worn. Of course, she flushed, and did not like it, but she was too sensible to make a fuss and cause an investigation. She was puzzled to know how I knew, but I did not enlighten her. She paid the bill.

"Is it policy to do those things? Well, we are obliged to protect ourselves as much as we can. The fact that she was a wealthy woman had absolutely no weight with us. We do not cater to dishonest people, even if they have money. And there are nine chances out of ten that Mrs. B. will, in the future, be one of our most reliable and valuable customers.

"Oh, this is the place to learn human nature."

A DRIVING TOUR.

Of all summer outings that give rest and recreation and freedom from care with constant change of scene, carriage driving is one of the most delightful. Choose you, if choice be granted, a horse who is a fast walker, but who is withal staid and sober, and with dignity above the friskiness kicked out on hill pastures long ago; an honest horse, free from guile, in whom your trust may rest unshaken even by the reins. And choose you a carriage which is large and roomy and comfortable. So are you started for strange adventure.

A carriage drive is like unto the tangle of strings at a cobweb party—the beginning you are sure of, but who shall say where it will end? You plan it all beforehand, and in the making of the schedule is great pleasure. But with each day come new perplexities, delightful perplexities, winding, shady, grassy roads, patches of briars on the one side, and moss-gray moldering old tree trunks on the other wandering apparently without aim into the hills and filling you with an irresistible desire to wander also. And, after all, the most delightful drive is without aim save the pleasure to be derived, and without plan save as to a general direction, leaving to wayward roads and the chance of each day the destination of the morrow.—Country Life in America.
